Aaron Sorkin's riveting, award-winning stage adaptation of the seminal American novel about racial injustice and childhood innocence became a Broadway and West End sensation with star-studded sell-out seasons on both sides of the Atlantic. Now this thrilling courtroom drama comes to Bord Gáis Energy Theatre.

Successful lawyer, Atticus Finch, encourages kindness and empathy in his children, but is pushed to the limits of these qualities himself when he resolves to uncover the truth in a town that seems determined to hide it. Set in 1934 Alabama, TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD was inspired by novelist Harper Lee's own childhood and has sold more than 45 million copies worldwide. It won the Pulitzer Prize for Literature and was long at the top of the banned book lists.

Written by Willy Russell, the legendary BLOOD BROTHERS tells the captivating and moving tale of twins who, separated at birth, grow up on opposite sides of the tracks, only to meet again with fateful consequences.

Few musicals have received quite such acclaim as the multi-award-winning BLOOD BROTHERS. The production ran for more than 10,000 performances in London's West End, one of only five musicals ever to achieve that milestone. It has been affectionately christened the 'Standing Ovation Musical', as inevitably it 'brings the audience cheering to its feet and roaring its approval' (The Daily Mail).

The superb score includes Bright New Day, Marilyn Monroe and the emotionally charged hit Tell Me It's Not True.

Ireland's own musical theatre legend, Rebecca Storm returns to BLOOD BROTHERS for the Dublin season starring as Mrs Johnstone, a role that she has truly made her own.

THE STAGE

Tom Ripley is anobody – scraping by in New York, forging signatures, telling little white lies – until a chance encounter changes everything. When a wealthy stranger offers him an all-expenses-paid trip to Italy to bring home his wayward son, Dickie Greenleaf, Tom leaps at the opportunity.

But in the sun-drenched glamour of 1950s Italy, surrounded by shimmering waters and whispered secrets, Tom is seduced by the life Dickie leads – the freedom, the wealth, the effortless charm. What starts as an innocent opportunity spirals into a chilling game of lies, identity theft, and murder.

The 10-strong ensemble cast is led by Ed McVey as Tom Ripley. Ed was one of the stars of the hit Netflix show The Crown. EastEnders regular and Strictly Come Dancing finalist Maisie Smith will star alongside him as Marge. This electrifying new stage adaptation of THE TALENTED MR. RIPLEY brings Patricia Highsmith's iconic psychological thriller, which inspired the acclaimed movie and Netflix series of the same name, to life like never before.

A love that defies nature. A sacrifice that defies reason.

Driven by her consuming love for a human prince, water nymph Rusalka abandons her realm to navigate this mortal world. A tale of longing, transformation and the high cost of desire, Dvořák's rich, lyrical score brings this darkly poetic fairy tale to life with the iconic Song to the Moon at its heart.

Irish National Opera's new production features a world-class cast, with Irish soprano Jennifer Davis in the title role.

New York tenor Ryan Capozzo is the Prince, with American mezzo-soprano Michelle DeYoung as the witch Ježibaba and Croatian bass Ante Jerkunica as Rusalka's father, Vodník. Soprano Giselle Allen is the Foreign Princess with baritone Benjamin Russell as the Gamekeeper. Completing the ensemble is soprano Rachel Croash and mezzo- sopranos Sarah Richmond and Alexandra Urquiola as the Wood Nymphs.

Direction and design are by the visionary Netia Jones, who co-created and directed INO's Olivier® Award-nominated Least Like The Other, Searching for Rosemary Kennedy. INO's Artistic Director Fergus Sheil conducts the INO orchestra and chorus. A co-production with Royal Swedish Opera and Nouvel Opéra Fribourg.
